

Author bio

---

Anya Shaw

Anya Shaw recently worked as a training consultant working with the Ministry of Education and the British Council Sri Lanka and has 18 years' experience in teaching, educational management and teacher education.

She previously worked as academic manager for British Council Argentina for a project that involved pioneering remote teaching through video conference for schools in Uruguay. Anya has the Cambridge ESOL Delta, is a Celta and Delta 1 trainer and has a keen interest in pre and in-service teacher development, teacher research, reflective practice and curriculum reform.

Author bio

---

Shamali Jayarathne

Shamali Jayarathne is a retired Master Trainer for the Ministry of Education, was the Lead Trainer on iTESL and a is a UK Validated Trainer for the British Council. She finished her Bachelor of Arts (English), PGD in Education and Masters in English Linguistics. She has obtained a Post Graduate Diploma in Child Rights, Classroom and School Management at the University of Lund, Sweden.

Shamali has also presented numerous papers locally and internationally. She currently works for the Peace Corps.