

Author bio

D M Shiromi Upulaneththa

Mrs. D.M. Shiromi Upulaneththa is a Teacher Educator in Sri Lanka. She started her career as a teacher of English in 1997. Subsequently, she became a Teacher Educator in 2009.

Since then she has served in three National Colleges of Education (NCoEs), namely Ruwanpura NCoE, Peradeniya NCoE and currently she is serving at Mahaweli NCoE, Polgolla. Her main subjects are Linguistics and Language Skills. She is also interested in teaching the methodology of teaching Literature.

She graduated from Peradeniya University in 2002 with a BA in English Medium. She obtained her Postgraduate Diploma in Education for TESL from the University of Colombo in 2008 and an M.A. in Linguistics from the University of Kelaniya in 2011.

She is a Lead Trainer for the iTESL project and a core member of the COP group. She has conducted TEC 1, TEC 2, mentoring courses and content courses for teacher educators of English and ISAs.

She is also a writer and a poet. Her articles have been published in newspapers and ELT magazines such as English Teaching Professional.