

Author bio

Hasantha Kuruppu

Hasantha Kuruppu is an ELT professional who belongs to the Sri Lanka Education Administrative Service. She has been a teacher, an Assistant Director of Education and is at present working for the Department of Examinations as an Assistant Commissioner of Examinations (Research and Development).

She holds an MA in Language Teaching from Lancaster University and a Trinity Certificate of TESOL from Leeds Language School in the UK. She has participated in and contributed to various academic forums in the fields of Language Assessment, Language Teaching and Teacher Development in the UK, Australia and South Korea.

Her main research interests are student performance at the G.C.E (O.L) and (A.L), validity and reliability of test items and evaluation skills of Assistant Examiners at the GCE (O.L) and GCE (A.L) Examinations. Her work is related to Testing and Evaluation.