Data changes

The local deadline for data changes is 10 February 2021 for IAL and 10 March 2021 for IGCSE

If there are any mistakes with regard to the spelling of your name, date of birth etc. please forward them to us as soon as possible. Any subsequent changes will be charged LKR 16,500/- as this will require a new certificate.

Grade upgrading

Candidates who have cashed-in and have received an overall grade for a subject but are not satisfied with their grade can still re-sit units subject to IAL and GCE qualification guidelines. However, any improved unit marks will not be added to the current grade. Therefore you are required to reapply for cash-ins in order to obtain the updated overall grade.

Late cash-ins for October November 2020 exam series

Absolute closing date for AS or A-level Late Cash-in requests is 10 February 2021

Candidates who have completed an adequate number of units or have no intention of re-sitting any units in future exam sessions MUST CASH IN on or before 10 February 2021 in order to obtain a certificate. A fee of LKR 2,000.00 will be charged for each Late Cash-In syllabus specification plus an additional LKR 2,100.00 per candidate fee.

Late cash-ins for October November 2020 are only allowed up to this date. If you do not cash-in, you will not receive a subject grade/certificate.
