

Biography of the Training Consultant

Rhian Webb

Profile

Rhian, Senior Teacher for Adults at the British Council, Sri Lanka, has worked as an EFL teacher since 2004 and has worked in France, Germany, China, England, Australia and Northern Cyprus in a range of educational settings and designing and teaching on courses including EAP, ESP, ESOL and foundation English in language schools, further education colleges, universities as well as delivering soft skills training to employees' in multinational companies in Paris and Munich.

She has also worked as Course Tutor delivering the Cambridge English course for in-service training for teachers of English (ICELT) and she was also a senior member of the professional development unit for a large cohort of EFL teachers at the School of Foreign Languages, Middle East Technical University.